A Note from Eve Queler

Today's concert is the forerunner (warm-up) for OONY's Young Artists Concert in Blandford, Massachusetts, in the Eastern Berkshires on July 21. We have been presenting those concerts for 20 years, the only performances of opera in a large swath of mountains between Lenox and Northampton. We are thrilled to introduce this music to a new audience; and, through the years, many of our young artists, who are now singing at the Met, and all over the world, have joined me in Blandford. Latonia Moore, Ellie Dehn, Michael Fabiano, Bryan Hymel, Taylor Stayton, Olga Makarina, Juliana DiGiacomo, Emily Duncan Brown, and many others, have sung arias and ensembles in that idyllic setting. The singers performing today have appeared recently with OONY in supporting roles. I want you to hear them sing their aria repertoire as they continue to establish their careers all over the US. At OONY's concerts next season you will hear Angela Meade, Michael Fabiano, and Brandon Cedel. I look forward to seeing you then. Have a great summer.
